House Republican Caucus Applauds Decision to Hold Special Session

BOISE, Idaho – Idaho’s House Republican Caucus is applauding the decision by Governor Brad Little to call a special legislative session the week of August 24.

“We thank the Governor for making this critical choice and thank our members for making it possible through their tireless efforts on the various interim working groups set in motion by Speaker of the House Scott Bedke and President Pro Tempore Brent Hill. The legislation being developed by our joint working groups will help set the foundation for this special session,” said Majority Caucus Chair Rep. Megan Blanksma.
